ITINERARY

Day 1: Arrival to Segovia.

Arrival to Segovia and a chance to start exploring this world heritage city.

Day 2: City Tour in Segovia.

The trip starts with a first day discovering the beautifully preserved monumental town of Segovia where you will enjoy the impressive roman aqueduct, one of the most beautiful cathedrals of Spain and medieval monuments at the turn of every corner.

Day 3: Riverside walk to Valsain.

10 - 17km / Climb: 390m

Short transfer to the historic town of San Ildefonso from where you begin a circular walk along the river Eresma to the mountain village of Valsain.

Day 4: Walk exploring nature around Pedraza. 16km / Climb: 420m

Transfer to a circular walk along ancient drover's tracks through juniper and oak forests. You will be greeted with outstanding views of the medieval village of Pedraza.

Day 5: Walk along the foothills.

15km / Climb: 420m

Short transfer to Pradena and walk along ancient drovers tracks through a stunning juniper forest to the mountain village of Gallegos.

Day 6: Walk amongst sunflower fields towards Sepulveda. 16km / Climb: 383m

Transfer to Castilnovo where the landscape changes to cultivated fields of sunflowers and vast open landscapes until you reach the beautiful hilltop town of Sepulveda.

Day 7: Circular walk in the Duraton Canyon. 16km / Climb: 367m

Your last walk is along the riverside in the Duratón Canyon Natural Park. You will see birds of prey circling above you, nesting on the limestone cliffs either side of the river. A special permit will give you privileged access to this protected area.

Day 8: Departure or extra nights.

Departure or extra nights in Segovia or Madrid.
